

Foster and Adopt

Learning summary	This learning provides the underlying theory, guidance and support to individuals undertaking the role of fostering and adoption.
Learning aims	The aim of this learning is for the learner to develop the knowledge and theory related to child development and attachment in relation to the role of fostering and adoption.
Learning objectives	Learners will be able to: • Identify factors that can influence a child's development, attachment and adverse trauma behaviour • Identify current advice and guidance on infant feeding and weaning • Discuss current advice and guidance on bathing, sleeping and dental care • Identify the support available to carers and parents • Describe ways in which parents and carers can encourage and support baby-led play • Understand the key elements of perinatal mental health

Applicable audiences	This learning is suitable for anyone who provides care and support related to fostering and adoption
Pre-requisites	There are no pre-requisites required for this learning
Delivery method	This learning is delivered by a virtual classroom
Duration	This learning will take 2 hours 30 minutes to complete
Materials and resources required	Learners should have access to a computer with an internet connection and Microsoft Teams
Refresher	This learning should be completed as required
Minimum learners required	12	Maximum learners required	25	CPD points	N/A